WATFORD HEATH

Sitting at the back of watford heath, at the intersection of Pinner road and Oxhey Avenue, the Royal Oak is a picture post card pub.

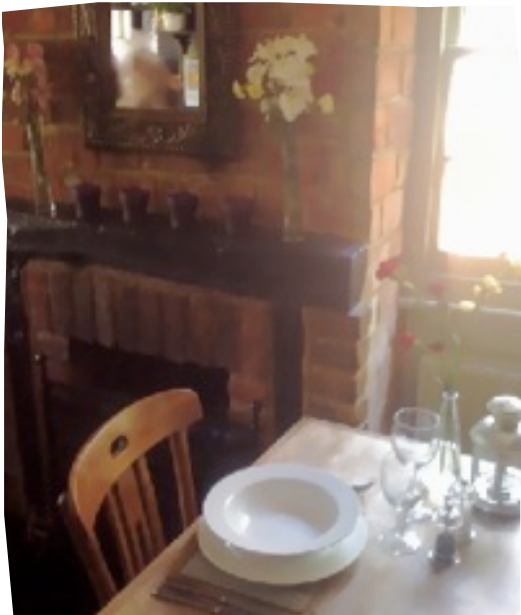

sat on the edge of the heath, surrounded with mature beach trees, and offers a fantastic location for families and friends to gather and to enjoy this fantastic community space, set within the Oxhey village environmental area This traditional pub boasts a quirky interior with an eclectic seating and styling also including modern soundtrack encompassing music from around the globe, from pop culture to classical music sets an ambiance in this stylish, yet traditional pub

Offering a fantastic home cooked menu, with fish, crab and steak specialities as well as traditional pub food and a great selection of wines, fine wines, Cask ales and continental lagers the Royal Oak caters for everyones taste

Offering a busy line up of events the Royal oak hosts a monthly farmers market (every 2nd Saturday of the month) , with ethical growers, farmers and producers all from with a 40 miles of the location.

We stand by the ethos " Modern Thinking with Traditional Values". British Pubs are part of our heritage and culture, the majority of historic venues left in towns across the UK with a known history are pubs. we are loosing so much of our history without realizing it.

"This is one of two markets that we support _ The royal Oak (monthly) and The Black Boy Pub - Bushey Heath (Weekly) everyone at the the market produces and grows under strict ethical guidelines- We've had a great response from everyone around the pub coming to support the event- We hope that we can offer a lot more to our community with the opportunity of utilizing the space for everyone "

Everyone within the community are active within fund raising for Local charities and good causes " The remembering Julia Trust ", Local Cancer charities and the Peace Hospice and the Oak plays host to all the fund raising events

Live Music on a monthly basis, has local talented artists, singers performing on the last Saturday night of the month - There is a view to open a monthly Jazz club at the venue in september ( for more info please check listings )

Quiz nights fortnightly on thursdays, promotional £2 per pint tuesdays and 2 main meals for £10 on a Wednesday brings value for money offerings during the week.

Recently joining the team, Stuart ..... who has been the resident chef at the a renowned local quality food pub, for the past of 3 years, has now taken on the role as head chef - Stuart presents a fantastic varied "Al a Carte" Menu offering great home cooked food that includes fish, and crab specialties, fantastic Steaks, and a great Sunday Roast lunch, which Kids eat FREE

" We as a team are dedicated to developing the pub into a corner stone of the community - offering up a child friendly location with great service, great food as well a hub of entertainment for both adults and children"
